LYNN HAVEN, Fla. - Developers cut the ribbon and began celebrating a new addition to Lynn Haven's housing options.

Construction at the new Pinnacle at Hammock Crossings Apartments is complete.

The first phase of the complex, right behind the Publix in Lynn Haven, was completed in 2011 with 100 units. Right next door, this second and final phase holds 92 units.

The developers, the Bay County Chamber of Commerce, and even a few elected officials came together Wednesday morning to show support for the new complex.

The total development cost just over $16 million and offers 1, 2 and 3 bedroom apartments.

Units range from $474 to $986 per month.

This is the third Pinnacle Housing Group development in the city.

The company said all of complex's new units have already been rented out.
